Dearest Mother thou hast left us.
Here the loss is deeply felt but its God that hath bereft us the
son. He can all our sorrows heal.

There are the remains of a brick vault in this cemetery. [Leslie Dryden has written that his Aunt Dora Culver attended the funeral of Rev. James Miller, who was interred in this cemetery, but who has no marker.]

* These two stones impossible to read, except for first names and part of dates. Info on these provided by Grace M. Atkinson, who listed the graveyard years ago before the stones were in such bad condition.
