The owner of the property surrounding this cemetery, Howard Stone, stopped by and said this field, which is on the county road in Fairmount, is a 4-acre field and there is a graveyard exception in his deed for the property. The length of the cemetery per the exception is 77 feet by 17 feet which is twice as long as where the stones are visible.

next to the church:

surrounded by field stones - obviously the tombstone had fallen down and the fragment that remains has been cemented into a cement slab. The placque says:

Rev. William Mullin
First pastor of this parish 1825-1847

fragment has a weeping willow and a rose and says:

Sacred
