

Davy Cemetery (No Markers moved to Upper Fairmount)

911-BB-26 center

General description: Somerset Co. Fairmount Election Dist # 6 (1877) Located in an area known as Fairmount Neck and Southwest of the Community of Upper Fairmount. The site is on the Fairmount State Wildlife Management Area, in a flooded area at the head of Moons Bay, on the north side of the Great Annemessex River. This area is shown as the Jericho Marshes on the 1877 Atlas.

Special Note: (This cemetery has three unmarked brick graves. We believe that the markers have been moved to the Episcopal Church yard in Upper Farimount.) The graves are located about 350 feet west of the remains of a large brick chimney with its opening facing east. The 1877 Atlas shows this to be the homestead of Capt. G. Davy. Located on a tract of land called Envy patented to John Waters in 1752 for 478 Acres and latter became Addition to Envy patented to Littleton Waters in 1775. 3 October 1805 Littleton Waters of Balt. sold to George Davey of Somerset 242 3/4 acres of the tract.
