

Dykes Cemetery

911-N-49-Center

Dublin District No. 4

Location: Traveling east on Five Bridges Road in Dublin District, Somerset County, Maryland, from the intersection of Pete's Hill Road and Five Bridges Road 4000 feet or 6 and ½ tenths of a mile to an old home site on the left or just north of Five Bridges Road. There is a very poor dirt road leading up through the small pines to the north. This cemetery was very difficult to find (the grid coordinates are the most accurate part of this description). Traveling north on the said pine road a distance of 2100 feet by estimation to a point: thence turning left of west and traveling through a pine grove a distance of about 500 feet to the cemetery. Several tall pines and some walnut trees were left by the timbering operation. This cemetery is probably going to be lost in the growth of these pines. The cemetery is about 800 feet south of the Election District line between Dublin and Princess Anne Districts.

Exact Location:           38 degrees 11min 35" North Latitude
                                   75 degrees 33min. 58" West Longitude

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Thomas H. Dykes         born Sept 4, 1822         died Dec. 3, 1895 For by grace are ye saved         Faith and that not of ourselves         It is the gift of God.         (Foot stone on location) T.H.D.                                                                                                        | Thomas E. Dykes         son of Thos &amp; Elizth Dykes         born Nov. 23rd 1851         died Sept. 26th 1883         aged 31 yrs, 10 mos &amp; 3 dys         [carved cross before epitaph] How He which establisheth us         With you in Christ is hath         Anointed us in God         Whom hath also sealed us and         Given us the earnestness of         the Spirit in our hearts.         II Cor. Chap. 2 21-22 verses         Stevens &amp; McDill Salisbury         (Foot stone on location) T.E.D. |
| Henrietta M.         dau. of Thos &amp; /Elizth Dykes         died Aug. 31, 1878         aged 21 years &amp; 1 day. Blessed are the dead which         die in the Lord         From henceforth yea, saith the Spirit         That thy may rest from their labours and         Their works do follow them. | Sarah E.         dau of Thos &amp; Elizth Dykes         died Feb. 15, 1872         aged 14 yrs, 8 mos. &amp; 26 Ds. Fear not little flock         For it is your Father's good pleasure         to give you the Kingdom.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

Listed 26 January 1991 by Rebecca F. Miller, Philip L. Goldsborough and Clinton Long.
 Revisited Feb. 6, 1994 for Photographs of the site. Retyped by Phil Goldsborough 2008.