KING CEMETERY

Revell's Neck

911-S-35-Northwest

General Description: Just west of Eastern Shore Correctional Facility (ECI) Westover Election Dist., Somerset County Cemetery located near a sand pit owned by Mitchell Bonneville. Near the home of Isaac T. Barnes on the 1877 Atlas of the Eastern Shore. Located on a tract of land called Arracoco patented by Randall Revell and Alexander Draper on 19 November 1679, being the surplus land joining another tract called Double Purchase and containing 2800 Acres, resurveyed as Double Purchase on march 1682. Robert King purchased 300 Acres of the tract from Randall Revell and his wife Catherine, naming the tract Kingsland. The ancient burial ground is located on Kingsland in an arable field near a sand pit. The site is on a hill about 10 feet above sea level and 300 feet south of King's Creed (alias Trading Branch or Mudford's Branch).

Exact location: 38 degrees 09' 22" north latitude
75 degrees 42' 57" west longitude

Current property of Mitchell Bonneville, adjacent to old L.T. Widdowson farm, on Revel's Neck Road. Located about 300 feet south of King's Creek.
