911-P-37-Southeast LAYFIELD CEMETERY

General Description: Just South of the Town of Princess Anne, Somerset County, Princess Anne Election District. The cemetery is located on a tenant farm owned by Sidney Francis Miller known by the name of "Layfield Farm", which was the home of J. Layfield on the 1877 Atlas of the Eastern Shore. It is probably located on the South part of a tract of land called Davis's Choice patented by James Davis for 600 acres 14 March 1663. This burial ground is located on a hill 200 feet North of a creek or run of water called Jones Creek which is a branch running South and East of another branch called Taylor Branch (alias Upper Fork or Smith's Branch) which runs out of the Manokin River. It is 450 feet East of the Penn Central Railroad track and 2,000 feet South of Washington High School, located between Old Princess Anne Road and U.S. Route 13.

Exact Location: 38 degrees 10' 30" North Latitude
75 degrees 41' 17" West Longitude

From the Town of Princess Anne, starting at the intersection of U.S. Route 13 and MD Route 363 (Deal Island Road), traveling South on U.S. Route 13 a distance of 2 miles to a point about 500 feet North of where U.S. Route 13 crosses Jones Creek; from this point traveling 90 degrees East True a distance of 500 feet to the cemetery on an arable piece of land being farmed at this date. All measurements taken from Topographic 7.5 Min. Quadrangle Map, Princess Anne Quadrangle 1992.
