Located in an area known as Lower Fairmount a little west of the old Fairmount Academy, directly across from Lower Hill Road, up a dirt lane and on the north or right-hand side of the said road. The cemetery is a little east of the home site of E. Hall on the 1877 Atlas of the Eastern Shore. Enclosed by rusted iron fence, falling down. Fenced area about 40 x 40.

hers is a vaulted grave with footstone; his is a bricked grave with footstone. The headstones are identically shaped and carved.
