

James Lawson Cemetery

Byrdtown

coordinates: (by GPS) 37 deg. 57.693 min. North / 075 deg. 50.553 West (note coordinates found in error and corrected Dec. 27th, 2013 by GPS & Google Earth)
Location: In an area known as Byrdtown on the north side of Calvary Road about 1400 feet northwest of the intersection of Calvary and Byrdtown Roads. This cemetery was shown to us by the late Carl "Kye" Tyler and is north of his home on Calvary Road. The burial site is in a pine woods with thick undergrowth. On a tract of land called Bay Bush Hall.

In Memory of Nancy Lawson Wife of James Lawson Born Oct. 12, 1787, Died March 31, 1881 Fell asleep in the arms of Jesus.	[open book, hand with finger pointing up] In Memory of James Lawson Born March 4th, 1784 Died May 25th 1858
[weeping willow, flower & obelisk] in Memory of Thomas Tyler Born May 21st 1813, Died Oct. 5th 1857 Blessed are the dead who die In the Lord from henceforth Yea, saith the spirit, that They may rest from their labours And their works do follow them.	[weeping willow] In Memory of John H. Moore Born Nov. 15th 1817 Died Sept. 3rd 1851 And as it is appointed Unto men once to die, but After this the judgement.

Listed 12 February 1995 by Philip L. Goldsborough and Rebecca F. Miller.

Visited by Danny Tyler, Carl Tyler Jr. and Philip Goldsborough winter of 1997.
Retyped March 23, 2006 by Phil Goldsborough

Relocated after fire of 2011 and Super Storm Sandy by Phil Goldsborough Dec. 26, 2013

Revisited, photographed and partialy cleaned by Norris Howard and Phil Goldsborough
Dec. 27, 2013 (Note the stone of John H. Moore was not found this date)