She has gone to God; Angels greet her,

Gone to join the seraphs band.

Who are springing now to meet her

In the glorious spiritland.

Death has been here and borne away

A brother from our side.

A Precious one from us has gone

A voice we loved is stilled;

A place is vacant in our home,

Which never can be filled.

God in his wisdom has recalled

the boon His love has given

And though the body moulders here

the soul is save in Heaven.

This lovely bud was given,

Called hence by early doom

to show how fair a flower, to paradise would bloom.

[tape messed up-recording but unintelligible]

[last two lines of somebody's inscription:]

[Leach obelisk]

in love she lived in peace she died

her life was asked

but God denied

Impression of another grave by this obelisk

by her children
