Maddux Chapel Cemetery

(adjacent Ford's Store)

General Location: Located in Upper Fairmount, Somerset County, Maryland in an area earlier known by the name of Potato Neck. The cemetery is located on both sides of the old Cecil Ford Store and a garage which is on the corner of Rte. ___ and Fishing Island Road. According to Mrs. Bertha Windsor Ford, widow of Cecil Ford, there was an old Methodist church at this location. Prior to the construction of the Methodist Church, this was the site of the old Maddux Chapel. Legend has it that Martha Hall Thomas, mother of the Rev. Joshua Thomas, is buried underneath the store. According to the current owners, there are graves underneath the store, which was apparently constructed on top of the church cemetery.

Exact Location: 38 degrees 6' 26.8" North Longitude
 75 degrees 47' 53.0" West Latitude

The following three stones are located between the store and a garage on the corner of Fishing Island Road. Listed 8 April 2001 by Philip L. Goldsborough, Ed Smith, Becky Miller and Dickie Ford (son of Cecil).
