

Marsh Cemetery

Mt. Vernon

911-H23-East

Hungary Neck , Election Dist #5

General location:

The Cemetery is located on Jones property at 26599 Mt. Vernon Road. Near the intersection of Pine Beach Road. The site is well maintained by the owners of the surrounding property.

Exact location: 38 degrees 14.651' north

75 degrees 49.794 west

Three Marked Graves:

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Mother(Hand pointing up)Gone HomeCharitywife ofCharles D. MarshDied Nov. 22 1888Aged 77 years                                                                                                                 | Charles D. MarshDiedSept. 27 1865Aged 61 yearsIn hope my -- here I sleepI shall an ahe had not to weepMy sins through Christ were all forgivenMy soul is now at rest in heaven |
| John W. MarshBorn Dec. 8 1829Died June 25, 1855Aged25 years 6 mos. & 17 ds.Farewell my wife and children allfrom you a father Christ do callMourn not for me it is in vainTo call me to your sight again. |                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Listed by: Ed Smith & Philip L.Goldsborough                                                                                                                                                                                           | 14 March, 2004                                                                                                                                                                                             |