This Cemetery is located in the community of Revells Neck on the Northeast side of Back Creek, on a private dirt road off of Millard Long Road, 4 tenths of a mile south, from the intersection of Millard Long and Revells Neck Roads. The plot is on a hill 5 feet elevation and near a small branch of water issuing out of the east side of Back Creek. Part of the cemetery is enclosed by a concrete block wall. The marker for William Dix is broken in the in the middle and some information is not legible. The 1850 census shows him aged 65 years, farming in Princess Anne Dist. HH 1344, with wife Sarah and children Theodore 25 and Josephus 22. We decided to name the cemetery after him because he seems to be the oldest individual buried here. The 1877 Atlas indicates the home of M.J. Beauchamp to the northwest of the site. The cemetery is in fair condition and measures 40 x 35 feet. It appears that someone has been taken some care of the site.
